1. Overview of Jordan Visa Options for Indian Citizens

Indian passport holders are not visa-free for Jordan. However, they have several convenient ways to obtain a visa:

- Visa on Arrival (VOA): This is a popular option for Indian citizens, especially for tourism. It is available at major entry points, notably Queen Alia International Airport (Amman) and some land border crossings (except King Hussein/Allenby Bridge, which requires a pre-arranged visa). The VOA typically allows a stay of up to 30 days and costs JOD 40 (Jordanian Dinars).
 - e-Visa: The Ministry of Interior of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan offers an online e-Visa portal (eservices.moi.gov.jo). This is recommended for pre-approval and can streamline entry. It is available for tourism and sometimes for business (check specific options on the portal).
 - Traditional Visa through Embassy/Consulate: For certain visa types, longer stays, or specific business purposes, applying through the Embassy of Jordan in New Delhi (or its designated visa application center) may still be an option or requirement.
 - Jordan Pass: A fantastic initiative for tourists, the Jordan Pass waives the visa fee if you purchase it before arrival and stay for a minimum of three consecutive nights (four days) in Jordan, in addition to providing free entry to over 40 attractions, including Petra.
